Since 1977, Memphis in May has had and promoted minimal participation from the majority population, though it draws on the majority's tax dollars for the various municipal services it needs. For the more marginalized and disenfranchised citizens, well they've been priced, out of luck.

The festival has the typical "Memphis Attitude" as it relates to color and participation from vendors to musical acts to participants themselves. From its choice of venue, Tom Lee Park, named in honor of a "Worthy Negro" to its longest running event, The Beale Street Musicfest, ironically a carry over from when blues musicians would gather on the street and jam, to its Barbecue Festival, see for yourself the lack of participation of black people.

Perhaps the shadow message is, "We're not welcome". We get it loud and clear and since "We" comprise 64% of the population of the city "we" have concluded this festival should not be held in Memphis, most especially in a park named in honor of a most worthy negro! Accordingly, the Coalition of Concerned Citizens is asking all concerned, well-meaning and able Memphians to join us on Wednesday, May 17, 2017, at 6:00 p.m.; Thursday, May 18, 2017, at 6:00 p.m.; Friday, May 19, 2017; and Saturday, May 20, 2017 at High Noon (12:00 p.m.) as we send a message to the world of the underbelly of the real Memphis!

They want it one way, it ain't that way.

As long as we get a little heads up notice, we will adapt and address any problems. Please let me know if you get further intel on this and we can ask for more manpower.
